Subject: Askwith Fellowships 2020-21

CMS College launches a Fellowship programme in honour of Rev. Frances Nowell Askwith, one of the great missionary Principals of the College.

Askwith Fellowship offers to meet the tuition fees of around 200 students, in consideration of financial situations and also academic performance. This scheme is open to students of the PG and UG programmes, aided and self financing.

Students can apply for this Fellowship till 30 January 2021. Applications are to be submitted online through the College website.

A committee appointed by the Principal will evaluate the applications and select the beneficiaries.
